

Help for Self-Represented Litigants

The public has access to helpful tools for self-representation, as directed under Texas Senate Bill 1911, effective Sept. 1, 2017.

Texas Judicial Branch Self Help Information:

<http://www.txcourts.gov/programs-services/self-help/self-represented-litigants/>

Texas Law Help- this website has information on many different legal topics for people who do not have an attorney. It also has a Chat feature that allows the user to chat with an attorney. <http://www.texaslawhelp.org/>

Texas Court Help - this website has videos and general information about making one's way through the courts. It includes information about how to find an attorney, where to find forms, how to get ready to go to court, and how to act in court <http://www.texascourthelp.org/>

Texas State Law Library - the State Law Library has Self-Help information, resources, and links <https://www.sll.texas.gov/self-help/>

Dallas County Law Library -provide patrons with the best legal resources available <http://dallascounty.org/departments/plandev/law-library/>

Information on this website is not to be construed as legal advice.